Count Everyone In – so that no one misses out on Jesus

An angel of the Lord appeared to them. And the glory of the Lord shone around them. They were terrified. .... “Do not be afraid. I bring you good news. It will bring great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Saviour has been born to you. He is the Messiah, the Lord. Here is how you will know I am telling you the truth. You will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger.”

Luke 2:8-12 (abridged) NlrV

Dear Friends,

Christmas is over and a new year is beginning. It's a time when we look back, take stock, and look forward with hope.

On Sunday, December 7th, we gathered in Newbury for our CEI annual Christmas celebration. As in past years, it was filled with both joy and meaningful challenge. Our aim is always to share the good news of Jesus in an accessible way.

I believe we accomplished that goal, and I am ever grateful to God for using us in the ways that He does. But what does that message mean—not just for friends with a learning disability, but for everyone?

A friend texted me later with these words: “I was struck by the line in the service about Jesus coming to the shepherds and to the kings, and to everyone in between. Seemed fitting for Count Everyone In.”

The angel said to them, “Do not be afraid. I bring you good news. It will bring great joy for all the people.”

After the shepherds had seen Jesus, they returned and gave glory and praise to God. Everything they had seen and heard was just as they had been told.

As we enter a new year full of unknowns, let us remember that Jesus came for everyone - the poor, marginalised, foreigners, wealthy, intellectuals, politicians and more. In fact, He came for all of us. May His joy fill us and the good news of salvation inspire us in the months ahead.

Count Everyone In – so that no one misses out on Jesus.

Wishing you a very Happy New Year,

Pete

Remembering friends

As we look back over the last year we are mindful of a number of our friends who have gone to be with Jesus. Let's thank God for them, and remember their friends and families in our prayers.

NEW: Online Know and Grow Makaton workshop

In 2026, Janneke is taking the Know and Grow Makaton workshop online! We pray that online workshops will enable those who have not been able to travel to face-to-face workshops, or who haven't been able to commit to a full day's training, to be inspired and equipped to use Makaton in their worship.

The first online workshop will be delivered across two Saturday mornings in January, with others to follow later in the year.

Saturday 24th and Saturday 31st January 2026 – 9.30-1pm.

Price - £40 per person (which includes a workbook and certificate which will be posted to you).

Hurry to book your place – almost full!: Know and Grow Makaton - Online \(24-Jan-2026\) · CharitySuite Events or email us – bookings@counteveryonein.org.uk

Know and Grow Workshops

Know & Grow Longing to Belong – an introduction to learning disability, theology, communication and how the church can respond

Know & Grow Life Matters – supporting adults with learning disabilities as they face issues such as relationships, healing, mental health and bereavement

Know & Grow Makaton – learn to sign everyday and Christian vocabulary at the only workshop for Christian language that is accredited by The Makaton Charity (TMC). This workshop was developed by Janneke Klos in partnership with TMC.

Would you and your church be interested in hosting any of these workshops?

Prayer

Friends with Count Everyone In Zoom prayer meetings resume on Thursday 22nd January and we will send out the Zoom Links in due course. Here are some prayer points in the meantime:

1. Thank God for the Christmas celebration
2. Pray for Janneke as she prepares for the online Know and Grow Makaton workshop in January and that it will prove to be an effective learning method
3. Pray for groups restarting in January, for energy and inspiration, and for new team members
4. Pray for our friends with learning disabilities whose access to church and leisure activities may be affected by bad weather and dark evenings
